GOVERNMENT REPORTS:

Red Lion Redevelopment Committee / Red Lion Borough

The Redevelopment Committee raised more than $5,000 from local businesses to update Christmas decorations in downtown Red Lion. Cost per decorations is $400 on average. Water Park is back up and running, was working during the Street Fair, has brought down crime, and will remain open through September.

PA House Representative Stan Saylor (Steve Pugh) – Summer session is still in and a few committee hearings have taken place around the state.

OLD BUSINESS

- Scholarship Update – Two of the six applicants received $500 scholarships: Clare Kocman and Mackenzie Rumburg. Checks to be mailed out 8/14/2013 to winners.
- Street Fair – Well attended; 180 vendors signed up with 15 no shows. Photos available from Joanna at Stan Saylor's office. Next year: Consider having an emergency management coordinator, EMS, more security, and/or disaster plan. Also push for a dumpster to be nearby to assist with clean up. Consider more adults at bouncy houses.

NEW BUSINESS

- Dallastown Carnival – happening this week of 8/12/2013. Many local vendors are there including George's Famous BBQ.
- SSD (Small Squared Designs) – Brandon and Donald Small, Jr. gave overview of their business, including Website Design, Screen Printing, Website Hosting, Logo and Graphic Design, etc.

Announcements

- Halloween Parade is scheduled for Monday, October 28 in Red Lion.
- Trick-or-Treat is scheduled for Thursday, October 31 for Red Lion.

Meeting adjourned at 12:34 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jessica Cauller
