GOVERNMENT REPORTS:

- Red Lion Borough – Trick or Treat is scheduled for Oct. 31, the Halloween Parade is scheduled for Oct. 28, and Halloween in Fairmount Park will take place on Oct. 19.
- Red Lion Redevelopment Committee - The Redevelopment Committee raised more than $5,000 from local businesses to update Christmas decorations in downtown Red Lion. This will result in the purchase of four new light-up soldiers in the square and 12 new light-up snowflakes. The committee will be helping with the Celebration of Lights event on Dec. 1 from 4:30-5:30 p.m. before Santa shows up in Fairmount Park from 5:30-7:30 p.m. In 2014, the committee wants to focus on partnering with the RLABA to create winter banners for the borough. The committee also wants to partner to create new welcome signs for the borough.
- York County Economic Alliance – The Alliance is taking a public input survey on redefining the priorities of York County's 5 planning regions, as well as gathering information for the 5 year update of the 10 year Economic Development Plan. Share your feedback here:
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/EDplanUpdate>.

RLABA Updates

- Kaltreider-Benfer Library – The RLABA is sponsoring $500 for the library's 50th anniversary event on Oct. 12...Beef, Beer, & Books. More info is available here: <http://www.yorklibraries.org/kaltreider-Anniversary>.
- Speaker Topics for 2014 – What would you like to learn about in 2014? The RLABA will be launching quarterly speaking presentations next year and would like to know what topics you'd be interested in learning about. Please email redlionareabusiness@gmail.com with your ideas!

Member Announcements

- Street Fair photos are available on Stan Saylor's website.
- Flag Day event was a great success and will take place again next year on June 14.
- An Empty Bowls Fundraiser to benefit Red Lion Area Community Services, Inc. will take place on Nov. 2 from 4-8 p.m. at Chapel United Methodist Church at 3050 Cape Horn Road in Red Lion.
